Vale Academy Trust (the “Trust”) and its academies are committed to making information about its operation and organisation generally available to the public, either through published documents (including those published on the Trust’s and its academies’ websites), or upon request.

In accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000, the Trust is required to have an approved Publication Scheme. The Trust has adopted the Model Publication Scheme prepared and approved by the Information Commissioner, see Appendix 1.

The Model Publication Scheme may be adopted without modification by any public authority without further approval and will be valid until further notice.

In addition to the Model Publication Scheme, organisations are obliged to produce a guide to the specific information held under each of the classes of information identified in the Scheme. This information can be found in the Schedule of Available Information, see Appendix 2.

HOW TO ACCESS INFORMATION

The Trust will make available the information it holds whether or not listed in the Publication Scheme unless the information is identified as not being available under one of the exemptions provided for by the legislation.

Requests for information must be made in writing, by email or letter, to the Trust’s Information Team, and should include the enquirers name and correspondence address, state what information is required and marked ‘Publication Scheme Request’:

By email: InformationTeam@vale-academy.org

By letter: Information Team

COMPLAINTS

If you are unhappy with the response you receive to your request, you should contact the Trust by email or letter at the address given above.

If you are unhappy with the response to your complaint, you may ask the Trust to carry out an internal review by writing to the Chair of the Board of Directors at the address given above. Your complaint or request for an internal review should be made within 40 days of the receipt of the original response and the Trust will reply within 20 working days of receipt.

If you are not satisfied with the result of the review, you then have the right to make a formal complaint to the Information Commissioners Office. Their contact information can be found on their website: <http://www.ico.gov.uk>

FURTHER INFORMATION.

More information about the Freedom of Information Act is available on the Information Commissioner's Office website at: <http://www.ico.gov.uk>.

APPENDIX 1: PUBLICATION SCHEME

This Publication Scheme commits the Trust to make information available to the public as part of its normal business activities. The information covered is included in the classes of information set out below, where this information is held by the Trust and its academies. Additional assistance is provided to the definition of these classes in sector specific guidance manuals issued by the Information Commissioner.

The Scheme commits the Trust and its academies:

- To proactively publish or otherwise make available as a matter of routine, information, including environmental information, which is held by the Trust and its academies and falls within the classifications below.
- To specify the information which is held by the Trust and its academies and falls within the classifications below.
- To proactively publish or otherwise make available as a matter of routine, information in line with the statements contained within this Scheme.
- To produce and publish the methods by which the specific information is made routinely available so that it can be easily identified and accessed by members of the public.
- To review and update on a regular basis the information the Trust and its academies makes available under this Scheme.
- To produce a schedule of any fees charged for access to information which is made proactively available.
- To make this Publication Scheme available to the public.

The Information we provide falls into the following categories:

CLASS 1 - Who we are and what we do.

Organisational information, locations and contacts, constitutional and legal governance.

CLASS 2 - What we spend and how we spend it.

Financial information relating to projected and actual income and expenditure, tendering, procurement and contracts.

CLASS 3 - What our priorities are and how we are doing.

Strategy and performance information, plans, assessments, inspections and reviews.

CLASS 4 - How we make decisions.

Policy proposals and decisions. Decision making processes, internal criteria and procedures, consultations.

CLASS 5 - Our policies and procedures.

Current written protocols for delivering our functions and responsibilities.

CLASS - 6 Lists and registers.

Information held in registers required by law and other lists and registers relating to the functions of the Trust and its academies.

CLASS 7 - The services we offer.

Information about the services the Trust and its academies provide including leaflets, guidance, and newsletters.

The classes of information will not generally include:

- Information the disclosure of which is prevented by law, or exempt under the Freedom of Information Act, or is otherwise properly considered to be protected from disclosure.
- Information in draft form.
- Information that is no longer readily available as it is contained in files that have been placed in archive storage, or is difficult to access for similar reasons.

The method by which information published under this Scheme will be made available

The Trust will indicate clearly to the public what information is covered by this Scheme and how it can be obtained.

Where it is within the capability of the Trust and its academies, information will be provided on one or more websites. Where it is impracticable to make information available on a website or when an individual does not wish to access the information by the website, the Trust and its academies will indicate how information can be obtained by other means and provide it by those means - see Appendix 2 Schedule of Available Information.

In exceptional circumstances some information may be available only by viewing in person. Where this manner is specified, contact details will be provided. An appointment to view the information will be arranged within a reasonable timescale.

Information will be provided in the language in which it is held or in such other language that is legally required. Where the Trust and its academies are legally required to translate any information, this will be done.

Obligations under disability and discrimination legislation and any other legislation to provide information in other forms and formats will be adhered to when providing information in accordance with this Scheme.

Charges which may be made for Information published under this Scheme

The purpose of this Scheme is to make the maximum amount of information readily available at minimum inconvenience and cost to the public. Charges made by the Trust and its academies for routinely published material will be justified and transparent and kept to a minimum.

Material which is published and accessed on a website will be provided free of charge.

Charges may be made for information subject to a charging regime specified by Parliament. Charges may be made for actual disbursements incurred such as:

- Photocopying
- Postage and packaging
- The costs directly incurred as a result of viewing information.

Charges may also be made for information provided under this Scheme where they are legally authorised, they are in all the circumstances, including the general principles of the right of access to information held by public authorities, justified and are in accordance with a published schedule or schedules of fees which is readily available to the public.

If a charge is to be made, confirmation of the payment due will be given before the information is provided. Payment may be requested prior to provision of the information.
